Our Grateful Thanks

The Editor of THE PUBLIC LEDGER extends his most grateful thanks to Pardon & Tolle of The Mayaville Daily Independent for their extreme kindness in helping him out when he was in a very bad shape, owing to a breakdown of the power press. For over three weeks THE PUBLIC LEDGER was printed on The Independent's press and every courtesy and kindness was shown us, with never a word of impatience or complaint. Such acts as these give one a better estimate of human nature, and it shows us too, that The Independent is no longer a rival, but a friend.

Again we thank you gentlemen. Our office is yours to command.

LET UNCLE SAM GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more trade—your trade—by giving you a greater value for your money. You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

J. C. CABLISH

The Sunday Commercial Tribune contained a picture of Manager McEwen, the handsome Captain of the Mayaville Baseball Club.

Mr. Worthington, representing the Castle Aeroplane Company, was here yesterday interviewing President Russell of the Mayaville Amusement Co. regarding a flying exhibition. He was modest in his demands, he only wanted $6,500.

Joseph Rubenacker, Jr.

Joseph, the eighteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rubenacker, died Saturday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of his parents, near Germantown, after an illness of three days with pneumonia. Funeral Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from residence. Interment in Catholic Cemetery, Washington.

Splendid Financial Showing

In today's LEDGER, The Bank of Mayaville, National Banking Association, publishes its statement as of February 20th, on call of Comptroller of the Treasury. The deposits are $505,943.77; surplus fund $7,000, while the resources are $642,000.61. The Bank of Mayaville is recognized as one of the solid concerns of the country.

Mrs. T. E. Garrison

Mrs. T. E. Garrison, formerly of this city, died Friday evening at her home in Portsmouth, O., after an illness with pneumonia, aged 72. The remains were brought here and the funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the Christian Church, with services by Rev. Roger L. Clark. Interment in Mayaville Cemetery. She leaves two daughters and two sons—Mrs. Daisy Morford, Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. Stella Gammon and Mr. James Garrison, Cincinnati, and Mr. W. L. Garrison, Memphis, Tenn.

BEAUTIFUL LIFE

Closes in Eternal Sleep With the Death in California of Mrs. Anne Metcalfe

Relative in Mayaville are in receipt of the sad news of the death at Azusa, California, yesterday of Mrs. Matilda Anne Waller Metcalfe, aged 87, a woman noted for her loveliness of life and character.

She was a typical Colonial dame whose sweetness of disposition as reverend could soar.

She was born at Belle Forest, the family seat near Washington, Ky., and had an eventful career of which we hope to write further. The interment will be at Azusa.

NEW THEATER

Work Begins Today on Mayaville's Third Playhouse, in White Hall Building

J. C. Simons and Sherman Arn, both Mayaville men, have taken a lease on the White Building on the North side of Second street, and will start at once and build a modern motion picture and vaudeville theater with a seating capacity of about 400, which when completed will be one of the handiest theaters in the State.

The new house will be under the management of City Clerk W. J. Kerwin which will mean success from the start.

The new theater will have its lobby and entrance in the room recently occupied by the Saunders, Watrons Co.; the theater proper being 90x100 feet, taking up all the lot behind the Sander's room and the White Hall Hotel office. The location is ideal and means the enlargement and modernizing of the hotel, also.

Simons and Arn will spend $4,000 on the new play house. Work starts today and in 60 days the electric sign will tell the name and flash the opening.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by Local Applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when the inflammation is closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. QUENKY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc.

Transfer of Real Estate

Saturday Mr. Henry Robinson, the popular Western Union telegraph operator, bought of the Trustees of the Mary V. Wilson estate the old Stockton home in West Second street, now occupied by Mr. Montgomery as a boarding-house. It is one of the most desirable pieces of property in the city. The purchase price was something less than $5,000.

Third Street M. E. Church

There was one addition to the Third Street M. E. Church at last evening's service. Large crowds were in attendance at all services at this Church yesterday. There were 103 at Sunday school, 80 at the devotional service of the Epworth League, as well as large crowds at both preaching services.

The Pastor, Rev. E. R. Overley, goes to Ripley today to assist in a two weeks' revival service. At the close of the Ripley meeting Rev. H. H. Compton, Pastor of the Methodist Church at that place, will come to Mayaville to assist Rev. Overley in the revival services to be held in the Third Street M. E. Church.

Much interest is being manifested in all departments of this Church and all are looking forward to a great revival meeting. It is the desire of this people that everyone feel that they have an interest in this good work.

WHAT has become of the old-fashioned statesman who would rather be right than President?

THE difference between Colonel WATTERSON and Woodrow Wilson seems to be that the former is a politician among schoolmasters, while the latter is merely a school-master among politicians. And the difference is wide.

TRUST busting is profitable business for the lawyers, who, up to this date seem to be the only ones who have accomplished anything definite at it. If the Supreme Court should interpolate the word reasonable, into their fees, there would be less trust busting and more business.

LOOK up the record of many of the men who are now clamoring for Roosevelt as the greatest citizen of the world, and you will find that they are politicians out of a job, post-masters dismissed for cause or district-attorneys whom Roosevelt himself was on the point of ousting for drunkenness, and whom President Taft refused to continue in office.

THE check has become, by the evolution of events, a document having a clearly defined legal status; its form is protected, like the bank note and the bond, against counterfeiting and alteration, and it is charged with the function of carrying on the world's exchanges with a convenience and safety and to an extent which give to it in many respects predominance over coin and bank notes.—Banker's Magazine.

MORE than 2,120,000 square miles, or 71 percent of the United States is "dry" territory according to the 1912 Year Book, published by the Anti-Saloon League, which made its appearance last week. The same figures also show that 46,091,098 people live in "dry" territory and 45,871,168 in "wet" territory. The quantity of distilled spirits produced from materials other than fruit, and deposited in distillery warehouses during 1911 was 175,402,305 gallons, or 19,164,879 gallons more than in the previous year. According to the table, Ohio consumed 10,305,037 gallons of distilled liquors during 1911.

THE Ohio State Journal makes the following editorial comment on the early companionship of two of Ohio's notables: "In the early days of youthful innocence, JUDSON HARMON and JOHN R. McLEAN used to play on the Cincinnati Red Stockings. They were great players. Many a time JOHNNY would knock a fly that would send JUD to the home plate. He is not doing it now. The game is called, alas! - And why should it be so? Why shouldn't the spirit of boyhood come shouting down the years with a hip and a hurrah for the old companionship? Why should business and money, and politics stop the flow of the gentle waters of an old-time friendship? We don't say they always do. We know men who worship at the altar of boyhood days and they would rather associate with an old-time companion than they would with a hotel clerk or a railroad president. Fudge—these present associates are black patches in the glow of memory, when we played 'gray tiger' or 'three-cornered cat.'"

It is a simple journey from the cradle to the grave, and everyone of average intelligence knows the terms; yet men continue to say: "I don't know about that: I'll have to think that over, and look it up.—Ed Howe.

PRESIDENTIAL STRAWS also show how the hot air blows.

MR. ROOSEVELT evidently believes in the recall of the ex-President.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

IT is to be hoped that the visit of General Sir BADEN-POWELL may result in the Louisville kids learning to pronounce the old scout's name as it is done over in Linnon. Its "BADEN-POLE" over there, and that's had enough.

THE Kansas City Journal, Republican, remarks that "that strong ROOSEVELT sentiment in the South which Governor STUBBS learned about in Washington doesn't seem to interfere with the election of Taft delegates in that section." Mr. Taft says hang the sentiment, what he wants is somebody who can vote when voting means something.—Montgomery Advertiser.

THE majority of the people had their way before THEODORE ROOSEVELT was born, and they will be governing the country long after the curious illusion that he is the prophet of a political millennium shall have faded from the minds of his followers. There is more time than THEODORE ROOSEVELT thinks there is, and ABRAHAM LINCOLN, whom he probably resembles a little less than any other man in American history, was never tumbling over himself in his headlong haste.—Philadelphia Record.

CHAIRMAN MCKINLEY's friends in this city received information, detailed and specific, which justifies them in saying that in Mr. MCKINLEY's opinion Illinois will send a solid Illinois Solid For Taft. Taft delegation to the National Republican Convention, and while Mr. MCKINLEY is careful not to express any opinion, except a general one of confidence, as to the result of the election, yet it is known here that he has heard that with any other candidate but Taft the electoral vote of Illinois will very likely be given to the Democratic candidate for President.—Holland's New York letter in Cincinnati Enquirer.

Foolish Philosophy.

How apologetically women are criticised; and how blantly men get it.

A man who wants to be let alone himself, usually demands investigation of everybody else.

Thieves say no one is honest, and are as fond of the saying as they are of "not guilty."

You may travel from New York to San Francisco without being out of sight of valuable property belonging to different citizens; yet it is often said that this country belongs to and is controlled by a half dozen men.

Most people seem to feel that while the truth is true, it has no right to be.

There is too much applause everywhere for statements that are untrue, and acts that are discreditable.

Every sane man should know what is going on in hell, without going there to see.

The average man seems to refuse to believe anything until he has paid an agent a commission for convincing him.

The doctrine of the Brotherhood of Man won't work; people will always treat each other as step-children are treated, rather than as brothers. Men are as distantly related as a stepfather and his step-children.

It is a simple journey from the cradle to the grave, and everyone of average intelligence knows the terms; yet men continue to say: "I don't know about that: I'll have to think that over, and look it up.—Ed Howe.

ONE HUNDRETH

Anniversary of Founding of Ripley Will Be Celebrated in Fitting Manner

Ripley will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the town, which comes this year, and July 4th has been selected as the date. The matter was brought before the Town Council at its last meeting, and a resolution setting forth the reasons why was introduced and read by Chambers Baird. The resolution covers the purpose of the celebration completely and is given in complete as follows:

Whereas: The year 1912 marks the centennial anniversary of the "Town of Ripley," Ohio, originally called Staunton, in 1812, by Colonel James Ponge, a gentleman and soldier of Virginia, from Staunton thence, locater of James Ponge's Survey No. 418 in the Virginia Military District of Ohio, wherein this town is situated; and

Whereas: Said James Ponge founder, thereafter resided in this town until his death here in the year 1820, and lies buried with other members of his family in neglected graves in the old Ripley Cemetery; therefore

Be it Resolved, That it is the sense of this Council of the incorporated Village of Ripley, Ohio, that such centennial event and history be fittingly celebrated by the citizens, natives and friends of this village; and

That the life and memory of Colonel James Ponge, founder, should be publicly commemorated and his burial place properly marked and noted; and

That the Honorable Mayor of this village be instructed to appoint a special committee of Council, with himself and general committee of citizens, who shall constitute an Executive Committee, to adopt plans and take necessary action for such centennial celebration; and

That all citizens, natives and friends of this village, especially the living descendants of Col. James Ponge, founder, together with all organized civic bodies, churches, orders and societies, be cordially invited to insist in and attend such centennial celebration and that the Governor of Ohio and other state officers and the officials and citizens of Brown county, Ohio, and other towns in this county and nearby in Ohio and Kentucky and of Staunton, Virginia, and others generally be also extended a cordial invitation to attend such centennial celebration; and

That the coming Fourth Day of July, 1912, be provisionally designated as a proper time for the fitting celebration of such centennial anniversary, and that the Mayor be instructed to give general notice and issue proclamation thereof to the citizens and the public.

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard therefrom.

As well known, the Daily Enquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. Each issue is alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

Solicitors for subscriptions make a handsome profit and increase the good influence of The Enquirer in the uplift of morality and industry, and for the betterment and welfare of the community. For terms write to The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Special Request.

In a circulating advertisement appearing in the columns of this paper, an advertiser who has a merchandise store in Cincinnati, Ohio, in this paper, our readers are respectfully requested to state that they are the advertiser in the Cincinnati Enquirer. This will be done, and it will be gratefully appreciated by the advertiser and the Editor.

Taking a Chance

"It's little less than outrageous, Leslie, for you to squander your hard earned money on a worthless lottery ticket," said Leslie's wife in a burst of indignation. "I haven't heard of anyone being so shallow-brained in years."

"Never mind, if 51178 wins you'll be able to buy all the luxuries your little heart craves for and I've always desired you to have. Don't be too skeptical but—wait—" replied Leslie.

"I'd prefer any day to have the two dollars you've wasted for some real necessities instead of imaginary luxuries. A pair of gloves, a rug for the hall, silk for a waist, and a thousand and one things."

"Let's not quarrel over the money until we get it," broke in her husband. After the above conversation Mrs. Leslie tried to forget all about the lottery ticket, but impossible.

Meanwhile her husband, occupied with the cares of business, had forgotten completely about the little blue ticket. Matters of much greater import occupied his mind.

"Behind," he said one night, "the bills for the last month are simply enormous. My income does not warrant these expenditures. There's more money going out than coming in. I'm neither parsimonious, miserly nor stingy, but there's a limit to all extravagance."

For once Mrs. Leslie was silent; she simply smiled and kept on sewing. When she looked up she was startled to notice the silvery tinge to her husband's hair, how tired and old he looked, while she seemed to grow more youthful in appearance every day.

"Don't you feel well," she questioned, anxiously.

"Can a man feel well and happy," was his curt answer, "when he's continually harassed with financial troubles?"

The wife, wishing to end the discussion, proposed that they go to the "lucky show."

"Astounding that you did not suggest a box at the opera," grumbled her husband as he assented.

Mrs. Leslie finally threw all caution to the winds. She seemed to have been bewitched by the "demon of buy." The old portieres in the little parlor were replaced by elegant new ones, which made the parlor carpet appear so shabby in contrast that it was long before a new rug adorned the floor.

The comments of their friends were numerous. When they noticed the mahogany bookcases and the piano which had been purchased on the installment plan and Mrs. Leslie expected to pay for when the lottery money was distributed. "Mr. Leslie must have made a great deal of money," they said.

After three months of apprehension and anxiety Mr. Leslie gave vent to his pent-up feelings. Opening the new-fangled desk to look for a pencil, he burst forth in a voice of anger, dismay and exasperation, "Bills, bills, bills, that's the only kind of correspondence in this house nowadays. None of them receipted either. I'll have to borrow money on my life insurance if this continues."

"Yes," answered Mrs. Leslie with tears in her eyes. But I figure it will be all right if we only have a little patience."

"What do you mean?"

"It's rather inconvenient just now, but I fancy it will be all right when your lottery ticket comes due. Didn't you maintain vociferously that the lottery money would eventually pay for everything. Maybe then you can take a vacation and rest up a little."

"What college of your brain are these vivid imaginations?" said Mr. Leslie as he sprang to his feet, giving his wife one long look as if he had never seen her before. After a tense silence which seemed aged to his wife, he exclaimed, "The lottery money! What do you mean? I suppose it's a woman's prerogative to change her mind, but didn't you distinctly assert that you wouldn't touch one penny of that money?"

"Yes, but—"

"That's the reason why I never took the trouble to inform you that the drawing was weeks ago and our number was not among the lucky ones."

I pride myself on handling the best Blended Coffee sold in our city. I buy in large quantities from the Importers green and have them roasted so as to have fresh roasted at all times. My 25c Coffee is better than any 30c coffee sold elsewhere.

My stock of CANNED GOODS is unusually large, put up by the best packers in the country and bought in large quantities direct. I am prepared to meet any and all competition, both as to prices and quality of goods.

I have in stock two hundred bushels of choice hand-picked Navy and Kidney Beans, bought in Michigan where grown when prices were at the bottom for this season. Higher prices are coming.

I have coming a large stock of D.M. FERRY'S FAMOUS GARDEN and MELON SEEDS. You make no mistake when you plant these always reliable seeds. Melon growers and gardeners, take notice.

A large supply of Mackerel and Codfish for the Lenten season; in fact, everything in my line that any one could want and of the very best. Fancy Creamery Butter always in stock and fresh COUNTRY EGGS. I do not handle Chicago storage eggs and never did. I am always pleased to have my friends call, which I hope they will always do.

50,000 SERMONS

Preached Last Year on "Tuberculosis Day"—This Year April 28th

Sermons on prevention of consumption will be preached in many Churches on April 28th, which the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis has set aside as Tuberculosis Day.

Last year out of 200,000 Churches in the United States over 50,000 observed Tuberculosis Day, and millions of churchgoers were told about this disease from the pulpit. This year will be the third observation of Tuberculosis Day. Plans are being made to have the Gospel of Health preached more widely than ever before.

The movement will be pushed through the 600 anti-tuberculosis associations allied with the National Association and through the boards of health, women's clubs, and other organizations in hundreds of cities and towns throughout the country. Through these various bodies the Churches will be reached and interested in the tuberculosis campaign.

According to reports gathered in by the National Association of 1911, practically 10 per cent. of all deaths in the Church congregations are caused by tuberculosis. In a study of 312,000 communications of 725 Churches in which there were 7,000 deaths in 1910, the death rate among these Church-members was found to be 2.24 for every thousand communicants. This is higher than the rate for the Registration Area of the United States which was 1.60 in 1910.

"While these statistics," says the National Association, "are not comparable from the point of view of accuracy with those of the Bureau of Census, sufficient credence may be given to them to indicate that one of the most serious problems that the ordinary church has to consider is that of the devastation of its membership by tuberculosis. Every minister in the United States should give this subject some attention during the week preceding or that following April 28th."

FOR INDIAN RELICS

Memorial Building Is Planned for Washington.

CURTIS AND CARTER AIDING

Two Young Women at National Capital Are Made Chippewas by Adoption—Charles Crisp, New Parliamentarian of the House.

By GEORGE CLINTON.

Washington.—In one of these dispatches recently it was said that Senator Curtis, who has a considerable share of Indian blood in his veins, had the honor as acting presiding officer of the senate to sign a resolution granting permission for the erection of a memorial statue to the American Indian on a site overlooking New York harbor. Now Senator Curtis and Representative Carter of Oklahoma, who like the senator has Indian blood in his veins, have promised to aid in a movement started by the United States Order of Red Men of the United States for the erection in Washington of a memorial building to the American Indian to cost $500,000. The tribute, it is proposed, shall take the form of a structure in which are to be kept such relics of Indian husbandry, art and literature as may be contributed by associations and individuals.

In speaking of the proposal for the Indian memorial, Mr. Carter says: "This entire country has been carved out of the domain of the red men, who, insofar as tribal relations are concerned, are rapidly passing away and soon will be merged into general cosmopolitan citizenship of the country. It seems to me some such memorial as suggested where the relics of the handwork of the Indian may be preserved would be a just and faithful tribute to the American aborigines."

Two Girls Become Chippewas. In connection with this Indian matter it might be said that two young women of Washington, one the secretary of Representative A. O. Stanley, chairman of the steel investigating committee, and the other one of the committee's stenographers, have been taken into the great Chippewa tribe of Indians by adoption. When Leonidas Merritt was giving his testimony before the Stanley committee in connection with the matter of the Mesabie iron ore deposits, he suggested half-jocously that adoption into the tribe of the Chippewas awaited the two young ladies if they would but say the word. It seems that Mr. Merritt was taken into the tribe some years ago as a hereditary chiefdom of a band of which the full-blooded members are now extinct. This honor gave Mr. Merritt the right to adopt others into the tribe.

Miss Minnie Mahler and Miss Katherine Green, both of whom are of Henderson, Ky., and who now have employment in a congressional committee, are now, through the formality of adoption, known as Wabun and Wabunannung, the translations of which are supposed to be "the first faint flush of luscious breathing morn and eastern morning star."

New House Parliamentarian. Asher Hinds, who was the parliamentarian of the house when Mr. Cannon was speaker, is now a member of the house from the Portland (Me.) district. The house needs a parliamentarian, who is not so known, however, but is called "clerk at the speaker's desk." When Mr. Hinds stepped from the desk down to the floor as a member, it was thought that the Democratic speaker would be put to it to find a successor who would be able as Mr. Hinds was to quote precedent or decide a point on the instant. There was a careful study of the field, and finally the choice for parliamentarian fell on Charles Crisp of Georgia, who is a son of Charles Frederick Crisp, also of Georgia, and who was a member of six congresses in succession and who was also the Democratic speaker of the house in the Fifty-second and Fifty-third congresses.

The elder Crisp died in the year 1896. He was a fine parliamentarian on his own account, and rarely had to ask advice on matters connected with rulings.

Recently there was recorded the death of Harlow B. Littlepage, a Confederate veteran who was employed by the government to assist in the work of gathering up the records of the Civil war. He was, as was said at the time, a survivor of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack. It was also said that he was one of the last of the survivors of that historic conflict. Now Washington has heard that Charles Henry Farrell has died in New York. Mr. Farrell was well known as a newspaper man in the capital years ago. As a war correspondent for the New York Herald he was an eye witness to the fight between the Monitor and the Merrimack. There are old men in Washington who remember the anxiety in the capital when the Monitor went down to meet the Merrimack. It was believed that the fate of a fleet of vessels depended upon the ability of the federal Ironclad to cope with the Confederate Merrimack. A picture of the battle between the two vessels hangs in the senate chamber, and it divides interest with the picture of Perry's fight on Lake Erie, a picture which, by the way, within a few days was mutilated by some vandal who cut a strip of canvas from one of the lower corners. The Lake Erie fight picture was painted by W. H. Powell in the year 1873.

Ripley Official Invokes Referendum to Block Salary Cut

At Ripley, Ohio, the village Street Commissioner, who also is the village Marshal, has tied Council into a knot with a referendum petition.

At its January meeting the Council confirmed the reappointment by the Mayor of Marshal Daniel Miller as Street Commissioner, then reduced his salary from $20 to $5 a month. Miller promptly started a petition for an election to pass on Council's action in cutting his pay and the election will be held in connection with the general election in November. In the meantime Miller is on the job at his former salary.

WHEN WELL KNOWN MAYSVILLE PEOPLE TELL IT SO PLAINLY

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Maysville the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mrs. Della Means, 323 East Front street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"About seven years ago kidney trouble made its appearance in my case, the first symptom being sharp pains through my kidneys, accompanied by a bearing-down feeling across my hips and loins. Dull, miserable headaches were also common and I often became dizzy that if I did not catch hold of something I would fall. I continued to grow worse, until I was often confined to my bed for a week at a time. No remedy I tried helped me, and I began to have symptoms of dropsy. My body became bloated and I had about disappeared of ever being cured, when I read of a person who had been cured of similar trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. Deciding to try them, I procured a supply at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and obtained so much relief from the use of the first box that I continued taking this remedy until I was entirely cured. I have no hesitation in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life."

200 New Ohio Physicians

During the last year 235 physicians and surgeons, 14 osteopaths and 41 midwives were licensed to practice in Ohio, according to the sixteenth annual report of the State Medical Board which was filed with Governor Harmon. The report also shows 315 certificates were issued to medical colleges and 47 prosecutions resulting in 36 convictions. The Board calls attention to its efforts to raise medical standards and says that the recently enacted laws have been of material assistance in keeping out of the profession those not qualified.

A large number of presents were sent to Mr. Harris and his family, as he has many many friends in Lexington, and a regret very much to see him leave the city.

BIG CHUNK

Spent By Political Parties in Fayette County Election

That the enormous sum of $63,000 was spent by the political parties in the county election in Fayette county and Lexington two years ago was brought out at Frankfort by the Committee on Municipalities. Colonel Milton Young, Treasurer for the Fusionist party, stated that his party had spent $23,000 and that he had learned that the Democratic ticket, which was unsuccessful, had spent $40,000.

City Attorney Hogan Yancey acknowledged to the committee that in his race for office in Lexington last fall he had spent $1,000 and figured that he had got off light compared to what some of the other candidates had spent.

ADVICE ABOUT GRIP

How To Escape Its Dangerous After Effects

With so much grip in town this winter a few words of advice will not be out of place.

First, grip is no trifler. Its after effects are often very serious.

Second, grip is particularly bad on children, old people and all who are not in the best of health.

Third, grip hangs on—takes away your energy and appetite—leaves you feeling weak and played out. That is a dangerous condition.

The best thing you can do is to build yourself up with Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil. It tones up the system and makes you strong and vigorous.

Read this letter from R. J. Lavin, Oneonta, N. Y.: "I had an attack of grip last January which left me in a very bad way and in a rundown condition. Later I began to take Vinol and I find it strikingly all right. It began to help me from the very first and now I am as well as ever."

Remember, we guarantee Vinol to do just what we say—we pay back your money if it does not. J. C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

387,910 POUNDS AT AN AVERAGE OF OVER $12

Were our tobacco sales of last Tuesday. We are daily selling more tobacco, at HIGHER PRICES, than any warehouse in Kentucky. We handle it right and will get you the top of the market. We sold a crop for W. J. Curtis of Robertson county, Kentucky, containing 2,155 pounds that averaged $27.00. One basket of which, containing over 300 pounds, brought 44 1/2 cents per pound.

Now is the time to sell and the place to sell it is through the BRICK HOUSES of the

Farmers and Planters Warehouses
